

1. The Regulative Principle of worship—far from being unduly restrictive—is God's way of protecting the Christ-centeredness and gospel-centeredness of worship by placing the Bible as the basis of Christian worship. In worship we...
 1. Read the Bible (1 Timothy 4:11-13)
 2. Preach the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16-4:4)
 3. Pray the Bible (Acts 4:23-31)
 4. Sing the Bible (Ephesians 5:15-20)
2. Implications
 1. The regulative principle guards the gospel for us.
 2. The regulative principle guards the gospel for unbelievers who visit our worship.